A Sousa program includes numbers representing both the classical and the popular schools of composition, and as much attention is given to the playing of the lightest selection as is bestowed upon the works of Wagner and Liszt. This is one of the secrets of the success of the organization under this magnetic leader. Every number of every program is played for its full effect, and the full effect of the band arrangement by Sousa of almost any kind of a composition means something striking, something bound to catch the ear of the auditor whose knowledge of music is limited to consciousness that melody pleases him and something that compels the attention of the educated musician. It is spectacular music that the band makes, and that is one reason why crowds go to the concerts, but the spectacular effect is not produced in a way to offend the genuine musician. It is the custom to condemn as devoid of true merit anything that is indorsed by all classes of people, but Sousa is artistic and popular at the same time, and his appearances here will be hailed with true delight.

THE CHRISTIAN ENDSEVER SOCIETY OF THE CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH HAS CHANGED THE TIME OF MEETING FROM SUNDAY EVENING TO WEDNESDAY EVENING IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE MID-WEEK PRAYER MEETING.

There are in this city four Christian Endeavor Societies, three Epworth Leagues and one Young People's Alliance. These represent the bone and sinew of the various Churches of our city.

The Central Presbyterian Society of Christian Endeavor elected officers for the ensuing six months Wednesday night as follows:

President—James W. Piper.

Vice-President—James B. Wood.

Secretary—Miss Ella Wallace.

Treasurer—Miss Lizzie Cox.

The Society is in an excellent condition. Services are held every Sunday afternoon at the County Infirmary, from which there have been good results.

The trip to Vancouver of the members of the Friendship Rebekah Degree Lodge No. 43, I. O. O. F., of this city has been postponed on account of the illness of several members of the Vancouver Lodge.

Christian Endeavor Day will be observed in a union meeting by the various C. E. Societies at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday evening, January 31st. A very elaborate program will be gone through with, and the meeting promises to be a grand one.

The Disciples Society of Christian Endeavor presented the Young Men's Christian Association with the Golden Rule, the Society paper, for the year 1897. This Society is in an excellent condition financially, having paid off all pledges up to date, and has provided for one of $15 that is due in April. There were five new members taken in at the meeting on Sunday, January 10th, three active and two associates. This shows that the Society is alive and doing a splendid work.

The Union Social given by the Westminster Society of Christian Endeavor of the First Presbyterian Church last night was a great success, and the members of that Society deserve great praise for the manner they entertained the visitors. The music was one of the features of the evening, and it is to be hoped that these union meetings will be more frequent, as they are the means of drawing the young people closer to each other and become better acquainted with the workings of each Society.

The following are the Young People's Societies of our city and the time and place they meet:

Westminster Society C. E.—First Presbyterian Church, 6 p. m., Sundays.

Disciples Society C. E.—Chapel of Christian Church, 6 p. m., Sundays.

Central Presbyterian C. E.—Central Presbyterian Church, 8 p. m., Wednesdays.

Mitchell's Chapel C. E.—Tuesday, 7 p. m.

Epworth League—M. E. Church, 6 p. m., Sundays.

Epworth League—M. E. Church, South, 6 p. m., Sundays.

Epworth League—Sedden Chapel, Sixth Ward, 6 p. m., every Thursday and every other Sunday.

Young People's Alliance—Baptist Church, 6 p. m., Sundays.

Every young person is cordially invited to attend some one of these meetings, and a cordial welcome awaits them.

"Our Failures and Successes" is the topic for consideration by the Christian Endeavor Societies for tomorrow evening. It is suggested that this topic be used for a Question-box meeting, which no doubt meets with the approval of the larger number of the Societies. The Bible reference is Luke 5:11. Out of some of our failures come some of our most perfect successes. Take the life of Jesus for example. From a worldly standpoint His life was a miserable failure. But where we find a more successful life than was His? The worldly people point to His poverty, to His associating Himself with the poorer class of people, and say that these actions alone were enough to make His mission on this earth a failure. But we, as young people, know that some of our most brilliant statesmen came from humble homes. The reason that we so often fail in our undertakings is because of lack of faith. Let us remember the pledge, "Trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ for strength," etc., and all the rest will be easy and there never will be such a thing as fail.

Vice-President—James B. Wood.

Secretary—Miss Ella Wallace.

Treasurer—Miss Lizzie Cox.

W. N. Stockton returned home yesterday from a three weeks trip, with fair trade.

The traveling salesman who expects to do much business in 1897 must practice the lesson taught in the following story: Two frogs found themselves in a pool of water they could not jump out. One of them was for giving up, and said to his mate "Goodbye, I sink—I die." Said the other: "Brace up, you duffer! Keep a jumpin' and see what turns up." So they kept jumping up and down all night, and by morning had so churned the milk that it turned to butter, and they jumped off the butter to the ground. Applied to business, the fable means this: If you want your sales of 1897 to exceed those of 1896, "keep a jumpin'!" Don't cry "I sink—I die!" The commercial traveler who continues looking for bad times will not survive to see good times. The man who keeps a jumpin' will see good times first.—Houston Post

The onset of 'possum and sweet potatoes averted last Saturday evening was great, so much so that our Past Concllor, Bro. Doc Wallace, had to retire from business this week. Bro. Thomas Russell is suffering from a very bad cold. It may have been 'possum. The remaining members came out whole.

O. A. NELSON, Pastor.

The appearance of Sousa and his band at the Washington Opera house for a grand concert on Tuesday afternoon will arouse a genuine interest in artistic and musical circles in this city. There is no need to enlarge upon the merits of Sousa or his band. Their position is assured and their laurels have been honestly won. Sousa comes here with increased prestige. His band is now playing the largest series of continuous concerts ever given in this country by an instrumental body, which will cover a territory of over 21,000 miles, and the organization is playing a form which is the natural result of such a lengthy series of concerts, and the inspiration of Sousa himself.

Now For '97!

Encouraged by my largely increased business of the past year, and in order to meet the largely increasing demands of my trade, I have taken advantage of the country, which has been the best of times for the country, to make the most desirable goods in my line on the market, at extremely low prices, and to give for each the largest, cleanest and most attractive stock of goods ever offered to the people of this city. Therefore, I am in condition to offer the greatest bargain ever offered to the trade and at the same time give them the very best class of goods. My stock consists of every article and much more than can be found in any strictly first-class houses in the country, consisting of:
